

A CLIMATE CHANGE PROJECT ECHO AND CARE* Special Event

Healing Our Planet: A Call to Action on Climate and Health Inequity

Join public health leaders from the Office of the U.S. Surgeon General, Project ECHO, USPHS officers from the Climate, Action, Readiness and Equity (CARE)* Initiative and more to discuss the health challenge of our time.

Featuring Emmy Award winning film-maker and Golden Goble winner actress discussing their documentary
“Invisible Corps”

THURSDAY
OCT 19 2023

1:00 PM - 3:00 PM ET

11:00 AM - 1:00 PM MT

[Click Here to Register and Receive the Zoom
Registration
Link](#)

A CLIMATE CHANGE PROJECT ECHO AND CARE Special Event

JOIN US: Thursday, October 19, 2023

11:00 AM MT | 1:00 PM ET

11:00 AM MT | 1:00 PM ET

SEE excerpts from the first-ever documentary about the 200-year impact and capacity of the United States Public Health Service (USPHS) in addressing the Nation's most pressing health issues throughout history.

HEAR from public health leaders on the forefront of addressing the nation's greatest threat to public health: the climate crisis and related inequities.

LEARN how past public health challenges position this generation of public health leaders to lead the charge for the health care related climate change action.

Special Guests!

Emmy Award Filmmaker:

Chris Schueler

Golden Globe Winner, Narrator: Ali McGraw

PANEL

DISCUSSION:

“Healing Our Planet: A Call to Action on Climate and Health Inequity”

- Deputy U.S. Surgeon General Rear Admiral Denise Hinton
- Chuck Sams, Director National Park Service
- Dr. Georges Benjamin, Executive Director, APHA
- Dr. John Balbus, Director, Office of Climate Change and Health Equity, and Deputy Assistant Secretary for Climate Change and Health Equity, HHS
- Dr. Bethany Carlos, DC Pediatrician